

Jaycees To Sponsor Tree Lights Contest

POCONO Mountain Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a county-wide outdoor Christmas lighting contest, it was announced yesterday.

The three winning entries as chosen by a panel of judges will be entered in a national contest in which the winners will share cash prizes totaling $2,500.

Stanley Grace, chairman of the Jaycee committee in charge, said all persons wishing to enter the local contest must mail a notice of their intention to him at this address: 1020 Congdon Ave., Stroudsburg.

List Names
Each applicant is requested to list name, address and phone number. Those living on R.D. routes are asked to state exact locations to make it easier for the judges to reach their homes.

All applications must be in Grace's hands by Monday, Dec. 30. The judging will be done that night starting at 6 p.m. and lasting until all entries have been viewed by the judges.

The judging will be based on originality, arrangement of lights and beauty.

Adventists Taking Part In Appeal

THE 54TH Annual World Missions Appeal, sponsored by the Stroudsburg Seventh-Day Adventist Church, is now in progress with house-to-house calls accompanied by Christmas carols.

Leading the volunteer workers participating in the drive are Chester P. Miller, church home missions director, and Clifford K. Okuno, assistant. The goal here is $3,300.

Funds will go toward extending welfare, disaster aid, and educational services at home as well as a widespread medical welfare, and educational ministry in 185 lands abroad.

Assistance
The local church operates a welfare center in the Adventist school on W. Main Street. Persons in need of assistance or knowing others needing material aid may phone 2091-4.

On a world basis, volunteer Adventist workers in 1956 gave 5,777,433 hours in welfare services to 5,432,042 persons. More than $1,000,000 in cash, some 5,000,000 articles of clothing, and 2,021,000 food baskets in addition to tons of CARE packages and Meals for Millions parcels, were contributed in a relief program conservatively valued at $22,949,664. Nearly 60 percent of this aid was given in North America.

Seventh-day Adventist members themselves contributed more than $67,000,000 last year toward the support of their world church program, in addition to welfare activities.

Two New Candidates

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 19 (P)—The list of potential or possible candidates for the Republican nomination for governor picked up two more recruits today, with more expected to arrive on the scene almost any day.

Judge Henry X. O'Brien of Allegheny County Common Pleas Court said "if the nomination were offered to me by people of responsibility I would run."

Different Case
Judge Robert E. Woodside of the Superior Court stated his case a little differently. Woodside said he has "heard some remarks relative to my seeking support for the nomination but I have no intention of asking, nor have I already asked anybody for any support."

Bond Approved For Highways

HARRISBURG, Dec. 19 (P)—The state Highway and Bridge Authority today approved a 20 million dollar bond issue to help finance the state's responsibility in a 153 million dollar federal-state highway construction program.

The money from the bond issue will be used to pay for the projects which already have been approved. Bids will be received Jan. 16.

Time For Fun On Authority

HARRISBURG, Dec. 19 (P)—M. Harvey Taylor, 81, jokingly threatened to resign as vice president of the state Highway and Bridge Authority today.

The Dauphin County Republican leader and president pro tempore of the Senate made the threat when he learned it would be his chore to sign bonds for a 20 million dollar issue approved by the agency.

F.F. Smith, Stroudsburg, Found Dead In Automobile

FRANKLIN F. SMITH, 116 Lee Ave., was found dead in his car in his garage yesterday afternoon at 4:30 p.m.

Mr. Smith was a plumber and steamfitter and had been in failing health the past two years.

Five Placed On Indefinite Probation

BANGOR — Five teenagers, charged with destructive painting of Bangor Area Joint High School on Nov. 26, 1950, were placed on indefinite probation yesterday at a hearing before William C. Kinney, Northampton County juvenile officer, in Easton.

Three of the youths are from Easton, one from Roseto and one from Wind Gap. A hearing for three others involved in the vandalism—one each from Bangor, Easton and Roseto—will be held later.

All eight youths are former pupils at Pope Pius X High School, Roseto.

Restitution

In addition to the probation, the youths were ordered to make restitution for the damage, had their driver's licenses revoked for three months and were released in the custody of their parents.

An added provision of the ruling is that they may not drive a car, even after their licenses are restored, unless their parents indicate they are willing to accept full responsibility for their actions.

The case was prosecuted by Glenwood T. Lewis, Bangor police chief, and Cpl. John Udits of the Easton barracks of the State Police.

Permission For Plan

PORLTAD — Metropolitan Edison Co. got permission from the Sanitary Water Board of the State of Pennsylvania to construct a treatment station at its plant at Portland.

The sewage treatment works is part of the firm's 25-million-dollar construction program expected to be completed by June of 1958.

Bloodmobile Collects 55 Pints Of Blood

THE RED CROSS bloodmobile collected 55 pints during its visit to the National Guard Armory in East Stroudsburg yesterday. Quota for the visit was 100 pints.

A total of 61 persons were registered, of whom six were deferred. There were five walk-in donors. Originally, 77 persons had been scheduled, but 17 were under 18 years of age.

The visit was sponsored by Co. G and Co. F, the local PNG units.

Members of the two organizations were recruited as donors by M/Sgt. Robert E. Schoonover and M/Sgt. Vincent Marek.

36 Jurors Named For Mob Probe

OWEGO, N. Y., Dec. 19 (UPI)—Sixteen farmers were among the 36 grand jurors chosen today to press Tioga County's inquiry into the gangland convention Nov. 14 at nearby Apalachian.

County Judge Frank Clohesy has called the jury into session Jan. 3.

Grand Jury May Call Law Aide

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 19 (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Grover C. Richman, Jr., today said a Mercer County grand jury will be informed of remarks by Joseph Harrison, chairman of the State Law Enforcement Council, and may call him as a witness.

Along came a truck driven by Francis A. Altomese, 25, of Long Pond. He told State Police of the Fern Ridge Barracks that, because of the fog, he was unable to see the abandoned car until too late to avoid an accident.

Damage estimated at $150 was done to the left rear of the car and $250 to the right front of the truck.

State Police filed a charge of leaving his car on the highway against Scherz. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Isaac Dyson and fined $10 and costs.

Frailey Named To Head Board Again

ROBERT C. Frailey, Pocono Township, was reelected president of the Monroe County School Board at the annual reorganization meeting yesterday at the county superintendent's office.

Also reelected to office were Dr. Evan C. Reese, East Stroudsburg, vice president; Harry J. Drennan, Barrett Township, secretary, and Clyde Dietrich, Chestnuthill Township, treasurer.

Porter Township, Pike County, which sends pupils to East Stroudsburg Area Joint Schools, is represented on the board by Herbert M. Young.

Dr. John A. Abruzzese, special education supervisor, reported only three classes in special education in the county outside of the Stroud Union District, although more than 200 children are in need of special instruction. Lack of room was cited as the chief drawback. Districts where the classes are held are in East Stroudsburg, Hamilton Township and Pocono Mountains Joint District.

Special Instruction

Two speech therapists are giving special instruction to 222 pupils—the exact number found to be in need of help. The teachers are Mrs. Marcia Bloss and Miss Helen E. Stetter.

Dr. Abruzzese reported 4 children in county schools are considered legally blind. One is being trained by a special teacher associated with Northampton County schools whose fee is paid by Hamilton Township School District. Effort is being made to procure special help for the other three children.

Dr. Abruzzese is working with the Mental Health Assn. to get special training for 70 emotionally disturbed children at some early date.

William Zaccarelli, Scranton attorney employed by the Pennsylvania Public Employees Division of Social Security, informed the board he would be glad to answer any questions school district secretaries care to ask in regard to the new social security setup for teachers and other school employees. This is a free service, he said.

Attending the meeting besides members of the board were John C. Litts, county superintendent, and his assistant, Walter Sebring.

Added Sentences For Life-Termer

CARLISLE, Dec. 19 (UPI)—Percy Haines, 62, already serving a life term for a 1955 courtroom slaying, today was found guilty on three additional charges of attempted murder.

Vacation Bureau Backs Airport Authority

POCONO Mountains Vacation Bureau last night threw its unanimous support behind the drive to raise $16,666.66 among the various governing bodies of the county for the Mount Pocono Airport Authority.

The action came on the recommendation of John M. Cran dall that the PMVB endorse the airport improvement program covering a total expenditure of $400,000. The authority has been assured of $383,333.34 and has asked the county, boroughs and townships to share the balance.

Onawa Lodge was received into membership of the bureau and its owner, H. Irwin Shin nen was elected a member of the board of governors on motion of Tom Robinson, president of the members at large committee of the bureau.

Most of the meeting was devoted to matters looking ahead to the 1958 tourist season.

In one action, the members voted to spend $15,000 to advertise the Poconos in metropolitan newspapers and magazines.

This was the amount recommended by the advertising committee headed by Ted Jenkins and is exclusive of the large expenditure—estimated at several hundred thousand dollars—which will be allocated for advertising by the resorts and hotels themselves.

April 29 and 30 were announced by Walter Fossa as the dates for the ninth annual Pocono Mountains Hotel and Restaurant Show at the Penn Stroud Hotel. Setting up dates will be Sunday and Monday, April 27 and 28. Last year, the show was held April 9 and 10. The later date was selected for 1958 to encourage a greater participation in the event.

The bureau also voted to participate in the travel and sportsmen's shows to be held in Hartford, Conn., Jan. 12-18 and in Harrisburg in March. Elwood Huffman reported for the booth committee.

J. Horace Strunk, executive secretary, reported that a group from the American Society of Travel Agents will visit the Poconos in May and inspect the facilities of the various hoteliers for two days.

There was a discussion of ways and means for furnishing the additional new office space acquired by the Vacation Bureau at 723 Main St., Stroudsburg. Two first-floor rooms, formerly occupied by Floyd W. Kellogg, have been taken over by the bureau and the Chamber of Commerce in the same building where their offices are now located. Present facilities will be retained.

A report on brochures and advertising plans was given by John F. O'Neill and Cran dall for the Top of the Mountains Assn. and William Altier for the Eastern Pocono Resort Assn.

LeRoy Guccini, president, reported the next meeting will be held in the form of a luncheon at Pocono Manor Jr.

Municipal Progress

Dr. Harold F. Alderfer, a prominent authority in the field of municipal affairs, spoke out here this week on matters of vital interest to persons seeking to improve local conditions.

The first deputy superintendent of the State Department of Public Instruction was speaking in general terms when he detailed the major problems facing local governments. And some of his remarks dealt mainly with cities with populations larger than our entire county.

But much of what he said can be applied accurately to problems confronting this area. More important, perhaps, was the fact that the courses of action he recommended coincide in many respects with the proposals already advanced for the local community by other sources.

Consolidation of municipal facilities, for example, was urged by Dr. Alderfer as a means of bringing more efficient and economical service to residents, commerce and industry.

Similar Recommendation

Such a step was recommended several months ago by the Pennsylvania Economy League after a studied survey made at the request of the Stroudsburg Rotary Club and the Central Labor Union.

Merger of police and fire departments, water and sewer systems, recreation programs, street departments, garbage disposal and the like in Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg would result in a considerable saving to both communities, the survey showed.

It could be accomplished with or without actual consolidation of the two boroughs and could be extended in some phases to include adjoining Stroud Township.

Responsible officials in the three municipalities would do a real service to the taxpayers they represent if they put into action some of the ideas set forth by Dr. Alderfer and the Economy League.

Robert S. Allen Reports...

House Probers Feud

Washington, Dec. 19—A new rash of internal dissension is plaguing that special House committee which speaker Sam Rayburn set up to dig into the dynamite-loaded affairs of the major administrative agencies.

This latest wrangling, which has hampered this investigation from its start, is between two top Democrats—Representatives Morgan Moulder, Mo., chairman of the special committee, and Oren Harris, Ark., head of the Interstate & Foreign Commerce Committee, of which the eight-member probing group is a part.

Basics of their backstage clashing is sharp differences over two key matters:

Gory Details—At several stormy, closed-door committee sessions, Schwartz reported he already has some evidence regarding the following:

An official of the Federal Communications Commission, who reportedly took money in connection with a decision on a TV license. A "clearcut" conflict-of-interest case in the Securities & Exchange Commission. This official allegedly was consulted by his former law firm about a client accused of SEC violations.

More Probes—Senators Karl Mundt (R., S. D.), and Barry Goldwater (R., Ariz.) are complaining to Senator John McClellan (D., Ark.), chairman of the Rackets Investigating Committee, that young chief counsel Robert Kennedy is dragging his feet on a probe of Walter Reuther, auto union chief. According to Mundt and Goldwater, only a few staff agents have been assigned to digging into the affairs of Reuther, in contrast to the several score investigators whom Kennedy put to work on Teamster mogul Jimmy Hoffa. Mundt and Goldwater contend that at least 25 agents are needed for a thorough "study" of Reuther.

Senate Styles Bridges, N. H., head of the Republican Policy Committee, is telling colleagues that he wants a full airing of how Dr. Pavel Winkler, veteran Czechoslovakian Communist, was named to the key position of chairman of the board of governors of the new International Atomic Energy Agency. Director General of this organization is Representative W. Sterling Cole (R., N. Y.), but Winkler, as board chairman, is in effect Cole's boss.

Bridges wants to know how and why that happened. Slated for grilling on the matter is Atomic Commission Chairman Lewis Strauss.

A militant liberal, the New York professor is vigorously insisting on an all-out investigation with no holds barred, particularly in the public airing of sensational charges of "favoritism and corruption."

This adamant stand is the root cause of the internal squabbling that has beset this potentially highly explosive probe from the start.

George Sokolsky Says...

Education For Science

The assumption which is becoming current in this country as an aftermath of the Sputnik is that more boys and girls, proportionately, go to school in Russia than in the United States, is without foundation. However, the Russians do not suffer from progressive education and from hoopla courses which represent mere attendance rather than learning.

Blowing and Pneumatic Engines; Electric Technique; Theory of Metallurgical Processes; Metallurgical Furnaces and Automation; Metallurgy and Testing.

Physical training is required for all students.

When this Russian program is analyzed carefully, it is over-specialized and while it may provide excellent technicians and engineers for steel mills and similar metallurgical enterprises, the intellectual training is extraordinarily narrow.

Whereas our engineers are also educated for citizenship and to take an active part in public affairs, it would seem that theirs are proletarianized almost from the beginning. Messrs. Chipman and Grant wrote in their report:

"... In the first three years, the two systems might be considered fairly comparable, but in the fourth and fifth years the Russian students study subjects and engage in industrial activities which we will not impose upon our students, even in the so-called practice schools—or cooperative programs. Much of the training in these years is on subjects which we expect our students to learn after they have graduated and taken jobs in industry. These last two years are, in fact, training for industry rather than education, and this is a road which most of our better schools have avoided. There can be little doubt that the Russian students are well trained for the specific industry they intend to enter..."

The Russians are training each student with a specific goal in view; we educate men on the basis that freedom of choice is essential to civilization. This, in a word, is the difference between the two societies; one is Spartan; the other Christian.

For the vast variety of clubs and societies in an American university, a Russian technical school has two social organizations: the trade union group, sponsored by the Ministry of Higher Education, and the Young Communist League.

Those who join the latter society immediately come under party discipline and if they remain within the party, their opportunities for advancement will be greater, but so will be their social responsibilities and obligations.

One important point made by Messrs. Chipman and Grant needs to be repeated here:

"... Laboratory equipment for instruction in Metallurgy in the Russian schools is superior to that in our own. This is true in respect to the quantity of good equipment available and the diversity and advanced nature of the laboratory experiments for which equipment is provided."

The Once Over

by H. I. Phillips

This Christmas it will be a case of "Home, Sweet Missle Station." Parents had better start planning their program at once. "Mommie, buy me a Jupiter," and "Aw, Daddy, can't I have a Thor?" is the 1957 cry of the monkeys. The demand is for playthings that will penetrate living-room outer-space and orbit around popper's nervous system. It looks like a ballistic Christmas with the kiddies unhappy with any toy that lacks power propulsion and can't devastate the old homestead.

Toymakers are out with satellites for any household and nursery, including launching bases, portable rocket bases and the Cape Canaveral touch. A power thrust sufficient to get any plaything through the roof, as well as through mommer, Aunt Tabitha and a too many offer neither!

(3) To even start an expanded science program in high schools as now being urged — fully trained teachers are necessary in these fields, who are lacking in number today.

Most local school districts throughout the state will concede that they are painfully faced with a problem of finding certified and qualified math and science teachers.

In most areas, substitutes in these two primary fields are virtually impossible to find.

Recent weeks much has been written and said regarding the sudden, frantic need to produce more and more scientists in an effort to at least keep pace with an obviously hard-running Russian technology.

The Leader Administration

frequently — and appropriately — has expressed concern over the educational inadequacies facing Pennsylvania's youth.

The point is not denied by leading educators of the state.

Governor Leader pinpointed it the other day when he said:

"The time has come to take a searching look at what the schools of Pennsylvania can do to improve and strengthen their courses of instruction."

The point at which one and

Stock Market Makes Brief Recovery

NEW YORK, Dec. 19 (AP) — The stock market made a brief recovery today, overcoming an early drift to the downside.

Leading issues in most major divisions advanced from fractions to around 2 points.

The quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange recovered an estimated $2,147,000, $600 based on the rise in the Associated Press average.

Technical Factors

Wall Street insiders ascribed the upturn primarily to technical factors but, as the day wore on, more and more expectation developed that the Federal Reserve Board would act to ease credit. This helped to buoy prices and, after the close, the expectation was borne out by news from the "Fed" that the supply of bank credit had been expanded substantially in the week ended yesterday.

Aircrafts got a lift from the successful firing of the Thor missile, a product of Douglas Aircraft, and also from a 100 million dollar Air Force contract for Lockheed.

Among market leaders the trend was almost solidly upward. There wasn't a single loser among the 15 most active stocks, although two were unchanged.

Among the entire 1,176 issues traded, however, there were 295 losers to 615 gainers.

The AP 60-stock average rose $1.70 to $154.00 for its best advance since Nov. 27. The industrial component was up $2.80, the rails up $1.40 and the utilities up 40 cents.

Most Active

Bethlehem Steel was the most active stock, up 1 1/4 at 35 on 65,100 shares.

Volume was 2,740,000 shares, slightly under yesterday's 2 1/2 million.

American Stock Exchange prices rose on volume of 760,000 shares compared with 790,000 yesterday. Gainers included Thielok International Petroleum, U. S. Foil 'B', Pacific Petroleum and Electric Bond & Share.

Corporate bonds were slightly higher in routine trading.

U. S. government bonds rose in light leadings over the counter.

Young People Plan To Hold Party

THE YOUNG people's group of the Bealekville Baptist Church will hold its Christmas party on Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Monroe County YMCA. All young people are invited to attend.

The party will emphasize some of the Christmas games and customs of past times, and foreign countries.

Agnes

The young people's group, which meets each Sunday at 6:30 p.m. is composed of those between the ages of eight and 20. This Sunday they will not hold their meeting, however, since most of them are appearing in a Christmas play to be held at the church at 7:30 p.m.

The Committees in charge of the party are: Anna Smith, president; program committee, Mary Schamp, Nancy Bitterman and Pat Halterman. Refreshment committee, Wanda Smith, Marlie Bitterman and Joyce Miller. Decoration committee, Bob Schamp, Don Schamp, Robert Poston and Roger Cramer.

Office To Be Open For Claims

THE PENNSYLVANIA State Employment Service office in East Stroudsburg will remain open next Thursday and Friday to accommodate persons wishing to file unemployment compensation claims.

All other departments of the PSES office will be closed for the Christmas vacation from next Tuesday afternoon until the following Monday morning, Dec. 30, said Jack Dougherty, PSES manager.

GRAY LADIES ADD COLOR to life in a hospital in many ways. Here they are trimming some of the trees to brighten Christmas time in the hospital, with the willing assistance of three young wheelchair patients at the hospital yesterday. From left to right: Mrs. Jane Canfield, Mrs. Helen Schluog, Mrs. Mary Uhl, Mrs. Anne Lazo; Mrs. Mary Louise Ingraham, Gray Ladies chairman; Miss Linda Daniels, 7½; Mrs.

Jean Bensinger, co-chairman; Jay Shumaker, 11½; David Shupp, 13; and Mrs. Matilda Reusswig, co-chairman. The decorating was one more chore willingly undertaken by the Gray Ladies who are serving in their regular routine each day despite the rush of the holiday season.

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

Yesterday was the kind of a day to take the starch out of anyone's new hair-do—and a lot of people had them, every curl in place, every wave with a knife-pleat edge, until the wind and the rain got at them when they were right back where they'd started from in the first place.

As a matter of fact yesterday was a sort of marking-time sort of a day, anyway. Everybody having so many things they had to do they couldn't make up their minds where to start, and besides they didn't feel like doing it anyway.

But that's the end of that. The calendar of events would tell me if nothing else does. You know how a road winds up a hill, steeper and steeper, and then just as you reach the crest seems to drop off into nothingness? Well, that's the calendar for you. It's been building up all month, and just when you think it's going to reach the climax in the last few days before Christmas, you come to Monday and boom! nothing.

Nothing to put in a calendar, that is. Actually the headlong race down the hill to Christmas is likely to be the most exciting and active of the whole month, but not for public information.

However, for your information I should remind you that today is the deadline for filing nominations for the outstanding teacher of the county with Mrs. Van D. Yetter. Your nominee might win just as well as anybodys. If you are grateful to a teacher tell Mrs. Yetter about it.

Speaking of the Woman's Club remind me that a lot of the members are receiving Christmas cards bearing foreign stamps these days: from Arla Joro, from Helsinki, Finland, and from Rama Trevi, still in London, two foreign

Tri-Hi-Y Decorates; Will Carol

The Intermediate Tri-Hi-Y spent their meeting time decorating the YMCA for Christmas including the trees in the junior lobby.

Members of the Intermediate group will go caroling at the County Home on Sunday night, December 22. They have been asked to meet at the Y at 7 p.m. They will be accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Miles Kirkhoff.

Nomination For Teachers' Oscar Due Today

Today is the deadline for nominations for "An Oscar for a Teacher", sponsored by the Woman's Club of the Stroudsburgs. Mrs. Van D. Yetter, education chairman, reported last night. Letters of nomination should be postmarked no later than today, Mrs. Yetter advised.

This is the second year which the Woman's Club has sponsored the project, designed to honor an outstanding teacher of the county and to call attention to the contributions made by teaching as a profession. Last year Miss Ruth Flory, a teacher at East Stroudsburg High School, was presented with the first "Oscar."

Any teacher in active service in the county is eligible, for nomination by individuals, PTA groups, school boards, or other clubs. Final selection will be made by an independent committee of persons representing various sections of the county.

The award will be made at the January meeting of the Woman's Club, and the winning teacher's name will be entered for the state award.

The tea table arrangement was by Mrs. Bernard Peters and Mrs. Vernon Wallace with a star-shaped centerpiece of

County Responds With Gifts For Patients At State Hospital; Truck Leaves Today

will leave today for the State Hospital in Allentown and at least 201 patients who received no Christmas gifts last year will have individual gifts this year, thanks to the people of Monroe County.

In a recent tour of the hospital, members of the Woman's Club of the Stroudsburg learned of the forgotten men, women and children at the hospital, many of them without gifts or company from one year to the next. Through the club chairman of mental health, Mrs. Harold Pond, and the Monroe County Mental Health Assn. of which Mrs. Arthur Henning is president, a drive was launched for games and individual gifts for the patients.

A total of 201 individual gifts have been presented, not including the gifts intended for general use.

The gifts ranged from 35 ball point pens to 70 half pound boxes of candy. Gifts for men included socks, neckties, bow ties, zipper travel kit with shaving needs, talcum shaving cream and toilet water. For women the gifts included notepaper, combs, hairpins, hair nets, brush sets, talcum, bath powder, cologne, hand lotion stockings, wallets, handkerchiefs and slip carrier.

The round-up of games for general use in the wards brought in 49 decks of cards, 75 jigsaw puzzles, 40 assort ed games, an embroidery set, weaving loom, costume jewelry, pencils, paint kit, crayons, coloring books, a children's printing press and typewriter, phonograph records, a globe, model airplanes, stuffed toys, children's books, hairbows and ribbon.

In addition to gifts, there were also contributions of money including $25 from the Woman's Club; $10 from the Stroud Community Club; $2 from Rena Bago; and $15.20 from Y-Gradale, making a total of $52.20. A portion of that money was used to purchase half-pound boxes of candy.

The Junior Woman's Club, Progressive Woman's Club, Barrett Community Club and the Catholic Church bazaar also contributed gifts for the project.

Of the 1,616 patients at the hospital, 1,059 received no gifts last year. There are 79 patients from Monroe County at the hospital.

Open house will be held at the Blue Valley Farm Show Building located along the Bangor-Pen Argyl highway on Saturday, Dec. 28 between the hours of 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m., at which time friends and relatives are invited to call.

The couple were married Dec. 25, 1937, at the Stroudsburg Reformed Church by the late Rev. C. O. H. E. Rauch.

Mr. Mansfield, the son of the late William and Emma Hauser

Mansfield, was born Aug. 28, 1887, in Cherry Valley, Monroe County. He followed the machinist trade most of his lifetime, his last employment being machinist at the Julius Kayser Company. He is a veteran member of the Second Ward Fire Company, also a member of the Second Ward Community Association and the Bangor Exchange Club. Both he and his wife are members of St. John's Reformed Church, Bangor.

Mr. Mansfield, born Nov. 10, 1888, is the daughter of the late Henry and Clara Rinker Cressman, of Brossardville, Monroe County. The Mansfields have resided at 140 Kline Street most of their married life. They have one daughter, Mrs. Raymond P. Hahn, one granddaughter, Madeline Jean Hahn and one step-granddaughter, Mrs. Stephen Tashner.

The Wards have two daughters, Debra Ann, 5½; and Kathy Marie, 4.

Mrs. Ward is the former Anne Mae Cowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lance Cowell of Hainesburg. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Ward, Glen Gardner, N.J.

Jeffrey Alan Ward

Their first son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Ward, of Hainesburg, N.J., on December 16, at the General Hospital of Monroe County. He weighed nine pounds five ounces and has been named Jeffrey Alan.

Jean Bensinger, co-chairman; Jay Shumaker, 11½; David Shupp, 13; and Mrs. Matilda Reusswig, co-chairman. The decorating was one more chore willingly undertaken by the Gray Ladies who are serving in their regular routine each day despite the rush of the holiday season.

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

Yesterday was the kind of a day to take the starch out of anyone's new hair-do—and a lot of people had them, every curl in place, every wave with a knife-pleat edge, until the wind and the rain got at them when they were right back where they'd started from in the first place.

As a matter of fact yesterday was a sort of marking-time sort of a day, anyway. Everybody having so many things they had to do they couldn't make up their minds where to start, and besides they didn't feel like doing it anyway.

But that's the end of that. The calendar of events would tell me if nothing else does. You know how a road winds up a hill, steeper and steeper, and then just as you reach the crest seems to drop off into nothingness? Well, that's the calendar for you. It's been building up all month, and just when you think it's going to reach the climax in the last few days before Christmas, you come to Monday and boom!—nothing.

Nothing to put in a calendar, that is. Actually the head-long race down the hill to Christmas is likely to be the most exciting and active of the whole month, but not for public information.

However, for your information I should remind you that today is the deadline for filing nominations for the outstanding teacher of the county with Mrs. Van D. Yetter. Your nominee might win just as well as anybody's. If you are grateful to a teacher tell Mrs. Yetter about it.

Speaking of the Woman's Clubs remind me that a lot of the members are receiving Christmas cards bearing foreign stamps these days: from Arla Joro, from Helsinki, Finland, and from Rama Trevioli, still in London, two foreign SWADDLING CLOTHES—1957—are represented in the baby shower on a grand scale given by members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church at their Christmas meeting this week. The gifts, many of them handmade and brand-new, were presented to their speaker, Dr. Nina Mae Price, to use in obstetrical cases needing them in the county. The clothes above are but a fraction of those presented.

Crusaders Tonight

Bartonsville — The Crusader Class of St. John's Lutheran Sunday School will hold the December business meeting and Christmas party at the parish house on Friday night, Dec. 20. Gifts will not be exchanged. Instead, members will make donations to the Sunday School rooms building fund. The meeting is scheduled to start at 8.

Members of the Intermediate group will go carolling at the County Home on Sunday night, December 22. They have been asked to meet at the Y at 7 p.m. They will be accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Miles Kirk-huff.

Nomination For Teachers' Oscar Due Today

Today is the deadline for nominations for "An Oscar for a Teacher," sponsored by the Woman's Club of the Stroudsburgs, Mrs. Van D. Yetter, education chairman, reported last night. Letters of nomination should be postmarked no later than today, Mrs. Yetter advised.

This is the second year which the Woman's Club has sponsored the project, designed to honor an outstanding teacher of the county and to call attention to the contributions made by teaching as a profession. Last year Miss Ruth Fiory, a teacher at East Stroudsburg High School, was presented with the first "Oscar."

Any teacher in active service in the county is eligible for nomination by individuals, PTA groups, school boards, or other clubs. Final selection will be made by an independent committee of persons representing various sections of the county.

The award will be made at the January meeting of the Woman's Club, and the winning teacher's name will be entered for the state award.

Christmas Arrangements At Garden Club's Meeting

The Monroe County Garden Club meeting room at the YMCA was bright with Christmas arrangements for their meeting yesterday afternoon with Mrs. William Hannas presiding. There were about 50 members and guests present.

Mrs. Elwood Grant had arranged a door decoration featuring angel hair, gold ribbon and small gold angels, and a coffee table arrangement using moss, flowering lichen and small gnomes.

Mrs. Wills Goddard had a whimsical arrangement of "Bulldog the Red-Nosed Reindeer," using greens for body, legs, tail and ears, and a red Christmas tree ball for a nose.

Mrs. Paul Fetherman, chairman of the program, presented Wanda and Lois Metzgar in Christmas duets, and Wanda Metzgar in an accordion solo. Mrs. Valerie Lee gave a Christmas reading.

At the business meeting, members paid tribute to the memory of two members of the club: Mrs. Harry Dreher and Mrs. Frank L. Patterson.

The report of the nominating committee, which included Mrs. Russell Hamblin, chairman; Mrs. Judson Lee and Mrs. John Dunkelberger, was given by Mrs. Lee. There was no nomination for president. Other officers nominated and elected are: Mrs. Irving Kiffin, first vice president; Mrs. Frank Fuller, second vice president; Mrs. Theodore Miller, recording secretary; Mrs. Vernon Wallace, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Milie Rawley, financial secretary, and Mrs. Edgar Van Why, treasurer.

Mrs. Russell Harmon had a Christmas cactus grafted to a regular cactus, and a door arrangement using a collapsible shopping basket.

Mrs. William Hannas featured the Irish theme of a lighted candle in the window using an old-fashioned angel candle with an open missal, rosary and holly.

The tea table arrangement was by Mrs. Bernard Peters and Mrs. Vernon Wallace with a star-shaped centerpiece of typewriter, phonograph records, a globe, model airplanes, stuffed toys, children's books, hairbows and ribbon.

In addition to gifts, there were also contributions of money including $25 from the Woman's Club; $10 from the Stroud Community Club; $2 from Rena Bago; and $15.20 from Y-Gradale, making a total of $52.20. A portion of that money was used to purchase half-pound boxes of candy.

NONCHALANTLY the morning newspapers got permission to release the latest edition of the Associated Press' Scholastic All-State Football Team.

Just as matter-of-fact, the powers-to-be let us know that Cary (Corky) Smith, East Stroudsburg High back, got honorable mention on said all-state team.

While this added laurel for the Eastburg gridiron star of '57, it can hardly be rated a true picture of one of the best backs—these peepers have come across in decade.

We can't take anything away from any of those named to the AP's first three teams. And rightfully so too. Because we simply did not see any of the boys selected in action.

But the bypass of Smith to a mere honorable mention is not just a mere slight but one of the catastrophes of the area's sports regime.

Sportswriters, aircasters and coaches voted for the all-state team. However, something must have been lacking in the Lehigh Valley when a back whose record was one of the best fails to get enough votes to spiral him up to at least the third team.

We cast our ballot for Corky, because we felt he deserved a berth on one of the first three teams. There was no other back within our realm who we believed in the same category with the Eastburger this year.

On certain days others exploded, but on a day in and day out basis, Smith was by far the best we had glimpsed in 1957.

The small representation of Lehigh Valley players on the team indicated that few coaches and fewer writers bothered to cast votes.

Two players from the Lehigh-Northampton League, none from the Lehigh Valley, and four from the self-styled Big Three (Allentown, Easton, Bethlehem) revealed the lack of interest along the line.

The AP might have what it calls a better setup in selecting teams, but it appears they're no better off than in the past.

The case of Smith ad- journs.

BOWLING TIDBIT — Oscar (Okay) Stuckey, one of the leading keglers in Monroe County, upped his lead in the average department in the Industrial League with a 602, via a 241. Okay, the Altoona native, now rests at 190, seven points ahead of second place Jim Harmon Sr., who has a 183.

The rest of top average men are Pete Grover, 176; Russ Dennis Jr., 174; Bob Smith, 172; Ken Barr, 168; Harry Andress, 168; each; senior Warner, 166; John Flood, 155; and Pete Murphy, 163.

Other high three-game sets were posted by Dennis, 598; Harmon, 556; and Sam Ellingwood, 549.

Stroudsburg, East Stroudsburg Fives At Home Today

Mountaineers To Entertain Scranton Tech In New Gym

STROUDSBURG HIGH gets a chance to break even with Anthracite region fives this season when the Mountaineers take on Scranton Tech in the new West Main St. gymnasium today. Varsity tap off time is 8 p.m.

Last Tuesday the Mountaineers of John Kupice saw their four-game winning streak snapped by a Scranton quintet—Central—46-41.

Stroudsburg, offensive poor in two quarters against Central, worked on a steadier and more even attack yesterday in preparing for Tech.

Tech Rebuilding

The Red Raiders, 1-1 on the year, are rebuilding this season. Last year they knocked off the Mountaineers in a close duel at Scranton.

Kupice, still worried about the shooting of his team with the exception of 20-point or better Ted Williams, hopes the club will start getting its "eyes" in the Tech exhibition game.

"We got the shots in the Central game, but very few of them were going in," Kupice said.

"We'll have to drill more. We can't keep on missing that many in a game," he noted.

Stroudsburg will probably start Ted Williams and Tom Gross as forwards, Ted Williams at center, and either Dick Everett, Jeff Weichel or Leo Fraley at the guards.

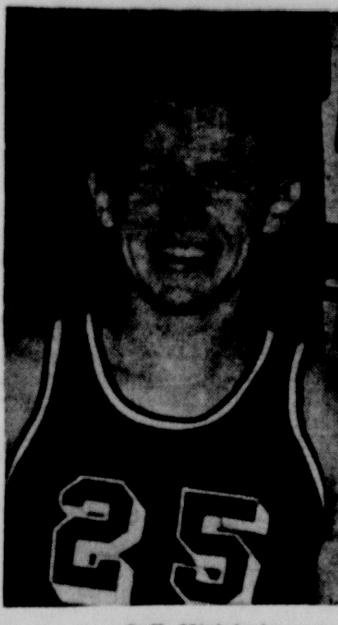

A preliminary game between the jayvee squads of both schools will open the night's proceedings at 6:45 p.m.

To Play For Stars

HONOLULU, Dec. 19 (AP) — University of Kentucky guard Lou Michaels, from Swoyersville, Pa., and center Charley Brueckman of Pitt were named today to the College All-Star squad that will meet the Hawaii All-Stars in the annual Hula Bowl game here January 5.

In the sketch you'll notice that the spot bowler's thumb is turned to the extreme left—the "9" hand on the clock dial. Were the ball to be released from this position, known as the "suit case" natural grip, without a slight lift of the arm, it would have no right-to-left hook spin. It merely rotates straight ahead, and chances are it will turn to the right eventually. It is called a "flat" ball.

This is the thing that most commonly results from spot

Tulsa Choir To Appear In Eastburg

UNIVERSITY of Tulsa Choir will put on a performance at East Stroudsburg Junior High auditorium Jan. 27.

The appearance of the famed musical organization is being sponsored by the Varsity "E" Club of East Stroudsburg and the East Stroudsburg Band Mothers' Club.

"E" club officials made the announcement last night at a meeting of the group.

Buddy Program

It was also revealed that the "E" organization will back a Buddy Basketball Program for youths in the sixth and seventh grades. The program is slated for the East Stroudsburg Senior High court and will be supervised by "E" members.

Midget football league players were requested to turn in their uniforms to Jack Kist at the senior high as soon as possible.

Following the session, colored films of the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg High Thanksgiving Day football game were shown.

Lane Hopeful Of Getting Yank

HAVANA, Dec. 19 (AP) — Frank Lawson, new general manager of the Cleveland Indians, said today he still was hopeful of landing second baseman Bobby Richardson from the New York Yankees or shortstop Harvey Kuenn from the Detroit Tigers.

Lane is visiting Havana to check with his manager Bobby Bragan, who also is managing the Almendares team in the Cuban League, on the progress of several Cleveland players and farmhands.

Talbert Seeking Portsider To Work With U.S. Netmen

MELBOURNE, Friday, Dec. 20 (AP) — Captain Bill Talbert sent out an SOS today for a lefthander to work with his U. S. Davis Cup squad and at the same time hinted he may gamble in the doubles to give Vic Seixas a rest on the second day.

"I have asked Dinny Pails, our professional, to try to secure us a southpaw," Talbert said. "This is to get us accustomed to playing Mervyn Rose."

Pails has his eye on a schoolboy in a junior tournament at Kooyong Stadium. "He has a very good service," said Talbert.

Rose, a veteran lefthander, is teaming with Mal Anderson in the doubles line-up for a dress rehearsal match today with Seixas and Gardner Mulloy teaming against Pails and Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio. There have been strong indications that Mackay, 22, might replace Mulloy, 44, who was not as his best last week against the Belgians.

Talbert demonstrated his indecision on the American doubles line-up by calling for a dress rehearsal match today with Seixas and Gardner Mulloy teaming against Pails and Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio. There have been strong indications that Mackay, 22, might replace Mulloy, 44, who was not as his best last week against the Belgians.

"We are not forfeiting a thing," he said. "But it stands to reason that if Seixas, for instance, should have a tough five-set match on the opening day it might be impractical to play him in doubles and then expect him to go out and give a topflight performance again in the singles on Saturday."

"So we might—now, understand I do not say we will—we just might hold Seixas out of the doubles and perhaps use Mulloy and Mackay."

Talbert emphasized that such a move, if deemed necessary, would not be a surrender in any sense of the world but would be a gamble for Seixas' two big singles points, which at this stage look like the best U.S. bet.

"We might—now, understand I do not say we will—we just might hold Seixas out of the doubles and perhaps use Mulloy and Mackay."

Lions, 49ers Expected To Spring Surprises

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19 (AP)—San Francisco's 49ers and the Detroit Lions practiced in secret today with both expected to spring something new for their playoff battle Sunday. With the championship of the National Football League's western conference at stake, nothing will be held back.

San Francisco in particular has come up with tricky stuff this season, perhaps just one such play a game, aimed to go all the way.

Last week against Green Bay, Joe Arenas knelt at the 15-yard-line to hold the ball for Gordy Soltau's field goal attempt. Instead, Joe took the ball, whirled and ran to a touchdown.

Quick kicks, a rarity in pro ball, bootlegs and halfback passes, also have come up to surprise 49er foes. Arenas, a seven-year veteran halfback used in spots, has thrown three passes and completed all three, two for touchdowns.

Will Have Something

"Sure, we'll have something," says coach Frankie Albert with an understandable lack of amplification.

The 49ers train at Redwood City behind fences covered with tarps. Farther down the San Francisco peninsula, the Lions drill behind closed gates at Stanford.

Detroit coach George Wilson says all the workouts this week will be in private, as the Lions stress their timing and some plays the 49ers didn't see the two times they met in the regular season.

49ers Won First

The 49ers won the first one 35-31 on a touchdown pass in the final 11 seconds. Detroit slammed through with a 31-10 triumph in the return battle. Neither means anything today, Wilson says.

Asked if he thought the 49ers an exceptionally lucky team, since four of their eight victories came in the waning minutes, the Detroit coach declared:

"Every team has to have a certain amount of luck. We have had

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

FOR FRIDAY, DEC. 20, 1957

March 20 to April 18 (Aries)—An encouraging day for personal business matters, for making new records at your occupation, for improving the quality of your output; stabilizing your friends and family. Use care in all things, however.

April 19 to May 17 (Taurus)—Today is a day of great and lasting achievement. You should find many favorable avenues for making headway. Your particular interests under fire at present.

May 18 to June 15 (Gemini)—Good progress indicated. You will probably receive a lot of unexpected help, now. Give your time and all activities in which you participate the best thinking efforts you can, but don't make unnecessary changes.

June 16 to July 23 (Cancer)—Some bad importunities continually plague you in your operations. Those in executive as well as those in your executive positions will be antagonistic. Do and dare—but wait.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo)—You might double your efforts to good advantage, but you won't permit "moods" or "sales" to hold you back. Rest, study sponsored.

August 24 to September 22 (Virgo)—Now is the time to hold on to worthwhile undertakings and for new as well as familiar work. Get in the front line; keep pack with the sun.

September 23 to October 22 (Libra)—Your Venus auspicious. The arts, music, inventions, all decorative work stimulate. A good day for financial gains.

October 23 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Now is the time to be good and good reasoning will be your best aids now. Skilled workmanship in your profession or trade will be rewarded.

November 23 to December 21 (Sagittarius)—Very encouraging aspects. Relationships standard high, and stand by your all honest actions. Your example can be of great good; bring rewards; pleasure, too.

December 22 to January 20 (Capricorn)—Heddy advice to Scorpio now. You will find your niche if you keep working and determined at your tasks. Don't be downhearted. Be your dependable, level-headed self if difficulties arise.

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius)—Your Venus auspicious. The arts, music, inventions, all decorative work stimulate. A good day for financial gains.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces)—Now is the time to be good and good, but it will be worthwhile. Use extra care in confidential handling liquids, chemicals, etc., which are under your care; should give you no trouble.

BORN TODAY—You are optimists; a bright disposition; are very capable, versatile, purposeful, and willing to work hard for long hours to attain success. You may have a tendency to drive too hard at times; avoid this! You are seldom point-blank; frank and honest; are frank and honorable, but must avoid a tendency toward bluntness.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. What is the secret? If the number is less than 6 add 2. If the number is more than 6 subtract 4. If the number is less than 6 add 2. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Beakleyville Church Plans For Program

THE BEAKLEYVILLE Baptist Church will hold its annual Christmas program Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

There will be recitations on the Christmas theme by the younger children, and a play presented by the young people, with the help of a few adults. This Christmas program has proven to be a popular event in the activities of the church.

Last year approximately 150 persons attended, some traveling many miles to be present.

Title of Play

The play for this year is titled, "He Came To Bethlehem", written by E. D. Yale. The characters are: May, Wanda Smith; Pilgrims, Bob Sham, John Carman, Joyce Miller and Pauline Schoupe; Wise Men, Don Sham, Grant Terrill, Jim Terrill, The shepherds, Jimmy Rake, Ann Stettler, Ruth Ann Rake and Roger Cramer; Spirit of Discipleship, Nancy Bitterman; Spirit of Christianity, Margie Bitterman; Spirit of Rome, Robert Posten; The Star, Linda McCarthy; Angels, Mary Sham and Anna Smith; Miriam, Pat Halterman; Spirit of Bethlehem, Rev. Forrest Spriggs.

Those giving recitations are, Paulette Altieri, Linda Miller, Emery Lord, Joan Plattenburg, Gwen Everitt, Sandra McCarthy, Linda McCarthy, Bobby Moran, Betty Shoup, Mary Sham and Pauline Schoupe.

Music will be provided by Mary Comunal and Margie Bitterman, with Mrs. Edward Terrell accompanist.

East Borough Firm To Give Bonus

PATTERSON-KELLEY Co., Inc., announced yesterday that a Christmas bonus will be paid to its 417 employees this year.

Frank L. Patterson, Jr., president, in announcing the bonus, stated that the bonus payment is being made in recognition and appreciation of the excellent employee cooperation and service during the present year.

In addition, turkeys were also distributed to each employee on Thanksgiving.

SHERWIN Manufacturing Corp., 1901 W. Main St., Stroudsburg, played host to its employees and their families Thursday night at the annual Christmas dinner and party at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

More than 100 persons attended. The program, in which President Harry Sherman participated, included an exchange of gifts around a lighted tree and dancing to the music of a four-piece orchestra.

Area Family Returning From Europe

MRS. AND MRS. Michael Sirota and son, Paul of Hiram's Rest, East Stroudsburg RD 1, are returning to the United States today after an extended stay in Europe.

Their trip, which started in October, was highlighted by a visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Sirota, in Trieste. It was their first reunion in 40 years.

Decks Today

The family also visited points of interest in Italy, France and Yugoslavia. They are aboard the liner United States, which is due to dock in New York today.

After spending the holidays with the Sirota's daughter, Mrs. Mary Potiron and family, also of East Stroudsburg RD 1, they will leave for Daytona Beach, Fla., to spend the winter.

Adventists To Present Yule Boxes

THE DORCAS Society of the Stroudsburg Seventh-Day Adventist church will give Christmas boxes to the residents of the County Home, according to Mrs. Leslie Drake, president of the society.

Following the custom of previous years, members will fill colorful boxes with cookies, nuts, candy, and fruit, and present them to the residents of the home at a Christmas program conducted by the local church tomorrow at the home.

Mrs. Drake said the Dorcas group will also give boxes of food to needy families of this area at Christmas.

During the month of November, 14 food baskets, valued at $240 were given away in addition to 125 pieces of clothing. Earlier in the fall the society sent 400 pieces of clothing to Europe.

Services For Mrs. Carlton

SOUTH STERLING — Funeral services for Mrs. Marie Jessamine Carlton, who died Saturday night, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Frey Funeral Home, with Rev. Harry C. Roof, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiating.

Pallbearers were Aden Gilmer, Raymond Drake, Robert Adams, Robert Meyers, Ralph Corey and Herman Fosgreen.

Interment was in Pine Grove Cemetery, South Sterling.

Shun Parley Bid

MANILA, Dec. 19 (AP) — The Philippines government is ignoring its invitation to the Afro-Asian conference in Cairo Dec. 26-Jan. 1. A Foreign Office commentary said the unofficial talks in Egypt will "purport to express the voice of the peoples" but will "support the Communist line on such emotional issues as colonialism and disarmament."

Illegal Fixed Prices

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 19 (AP) — The Supreme Court has found ceiling prices fixed by the government on essential items for over six years are illegal. It held the law authorized the President to set top prices by executive decree but he could not by decree delegate this authority as he did in 1951. A butcher who'd been fined $160 had a lawyer who spotted the misapplication of the law and won on appeal.

Lancaster Cattle

LANCASTER, Dec. 19 (AP) — Cattle stocks and feeder steers 2100 to 2300 lbs. Calf, $25. no market. Hog, $0. no market. Sheep, $0. no market.
